About the Director

Betsy Cook Weber is Professor of Music and Director of Choral Studies at the University of Houston's Moores School of Music. Dr. Weber teaches a full load of coursework, oversees the large and varied choral area at the Moores School, and is also highly active as a clinician, adjudicator, lecturer, and conductor.

Under Weber's leadership, The Moores School Concert Chorale, has sung for TMEA in 2005, 2008, and 2013, and they were featured at the national ACDA convention in Miami in 2007. Internationally, Chorale has received acclaim at three prestigious competitions —the Eisteddfod in Wales, winning or placing in every category in which they were entered, as well as at the the Florilége Vocal in Tours, France. She will lead Chorale as they enter as one of only ten choirs world-wide in the Marktoberdorf Chamber Choir Competition in Germany this May.

Dr. Weber has recently served as conductor of All-State choirs of Alaska, Nebraska, New York, Virginia, and Arkansas in addition to working festivals or making presentations throughout the U.S.

Before coming to the University of Houston, Dr. Weber was a successful music teacher in the public schools at the elementary, middle school, and high school levels, during which time choirs under her direction won numerous competitions and awards. She also served seven years as Assistant and, later, Associate Director of the Houston Symphony Chorus, helping prepare major works for renowned conductors including Robert Shaw, Christoph Eschenbach, Roger Wagner, Nicholas McKegan, and Christopher Seaman.

Dr. Weber holds degrees from the University of North Texas, Westminster Choir College (Princeton, NJ), and the University of Houston.
