The performances are quite outstandingly eloquent, the sound sumptuous and true...A super disc, this, and urgently recommended to all Anglophiles. (Andrew Achenbach, Gramophone)

...I urge this important new CD upon all those who are keen to explore the music of lesser-known composers...The performances, as I have suggested, are very good indeed. This is another success to add to the growing list of worthwhile BMS releases. (Robert Matthew-Walker, International Record Review)
