Sinfonieorchester Basel

Das Sinfonieorchester Basel ist einer der bedeutendsten Klangkörper der Schweiz. Seine eigenen Konzertreihen, die Konzerte mit Partnern sowie die Mitwirkung in den Opern- und Ballettaufführungen des Theater Basel machen das rund hundertköpfige Ensemble zu einer unverzichtbaren Stütze des Basler Kulturlebens.

1997 durch die Fusion des Radio-Sinfonieorchesters und des Basler Sinfonieorchesters entstanden, hat das Sinfonieorchester Basel in den letzten Jahren eine sichtbare Verjüngung erfahren und gehört damit zu den Berufsorchestern mit dem tiefsten Durchschnittsalter. Nebst höchster Orchesterkultur und jugendlichem Elan gehört auch stilistische Flexibilität zu den Kennzeichen des Orchesters. Sein Repertoire reicht von den Werken der Wiener Klassik über das romantische Kernrepertoire bis hin zu Kompositionen der jüngsten Moderne. Zahlreiche CD-Einspielungen dokumentieren das Schaffen des Orchesters.

In der Saison 2009/10 wurde der renommierte amerikanische Dirigent und Pianist Dennis Russell Davies zum Chefdirigenten berufen. Unter Davies baut das Orchester seine Stärken und sein Repertoire laufend aus.

Dennis Russell Davies

Dennis Russell Davies, Chefdirigent

Dennis Russell Davies ist seit 2009 Chefdirigent des Sinfonieorchesters Basel. Seine Tätigkeit als Dirigent und Pianist ist gekennzeichnet durch ein breites Repertoire mit einem deutlichen Akzent auf der Moderne. Eng ist seine Zusammenarbeit mit Komponisten wie Philip Glass, Aaron Copland, Luciano Berio, Hans Werner Henze oder Arvo Pärt. Geboren ist Davies 1944 in Toledo im US-Bundesstaat Ohio. Er studierte an der Juilliard School New York. In den USA hielt er verschiedene Chefpositionen inne, bevor er 1980 nach Deutschland und Österreich zog. Davies war Generalmusikdirektor der Württembergischen Staatsoper Stuttgart und der Oper Bonn. Als Chefdirigent des Stuttgarter Kammerorchesters nahm er alle 107 Sinfonien Joseph Haydns auf. Weitere Positionen beim «Orchester der Beethovenhalle Bonn» und dem Radio-Symphonieorchester Wien. Seit 2002 ist er Chefdirigent des Bruckner Orchesters Linz und der Oper des Landestheaters Linz.

Als Gast hat Davies alle grossen amerikanischen Orchester dirigiert. In Europa tritt er mit Orchestern wie dem Leipziger Gewandhausorchester auf, der Dresdner Philharmonie oder dem Concertgebouworkest Amsterdam. Von 1978 bis 1980 dirigiert er bei den Bayreuther Festspielen, 1998 eröffnete er die Salzburger Festspiele mit Kurt Weills «Aufstieg und Fall der Stadt Mahagonny». Danach arbeitet er an der Lyric Opera of Chicago, der New Yorker Met und an der Opéra National de Paris. Seit 1997 ist Davies Professor für Dirigieren am Salzburger Mozarteum.

The Basel Symphony Orchestra

The Basel Symphony Orchestra (Sinfonieorchester Basel) is one of Switzerland's major orchestras and appears both in concert and at the opera house. For decades it has produced a wide array of highlights under the batons of such conductors as Felix Weingartner, Hans Münch, Moshe Atzmon, Matthias Bamert, Gary Bertini, Pierre Boulez, Armin Jordan, Nello Santi, Mario Venzago and Walter Weller. Its CD recordings of the music of Robert Schumann, Maurice Ravel, Klaus Huber, Luigi Nono and Othmar Schoeck have received great international acclaim and many awards. 'A Different Schumann', for example, was awarded the Golden Tuning Fork from the German music industry.

Today the Basel Symphony Orchestra numbers among Switzerland's leading musical ensembles, with some 100 highly qualified and highly motivated musicians. Its broad repertoire ranges effortlessly from the Viennese classics and to contemporary music. Whether in the concert hall or the opera house, at home or on its domestic and foreign tours, this internationally varied group of musicians constantly demonstrates its unique flexibility and artistic prowess.

One of the orchestra's wishes came true in the 2009-10 season when its leadership was taken over by the renowned American conductor and pianist Dennis Russell Davies.

Dennis Russell Davies, Principal Conductor

Dennis Russell Davies

Dennis Russell Davies' activities as an opera and concert conductor, and as a pianist and chamber musician, are characterized by an extensive repertoire stretching from the Baroque to the latest music of our time. Widely considered to be one of the most innovative and adventurous conductors in the classical music world, Dennis Russell Davies has successfully challenged and inspired audiences on both sides of the Atlantic. He is noted for his exciting and well-structured concert programmes and for close working relationships with many composers, among them Luciano Berio, William Bolcom, John Cage, Manfred Trojahn, Philip Glass, Heinz Winbeck, Laurie Anderson, Philippe Manoury, Aaron Copland, Hans Werner Henze, Michael Nyman and Kurt Schwertsik

After first appointments as Musical Director of the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra 1972-1980 and Chief Conductor of the American Composers Orchestra in New York 1977-2002, Davies moved to Europe and settled down in Germany and Austria. He held positions as Music Director of the Staatsoper Stuttgart from 1980-1987, Chief Conductor of the Beethovenhalle Orchestra, Music Director of the Bonn Opera and the International Beethoven Festival from 1987-1995, after which he was chief conductor of the Stuttgart Chamber Orchestra from 1995-2006.

In Austria, Dennis Russell Davies was appointed Chief Conductor of the Vienna Radio Symphony Orchestra and entrusted with a conducting professorship at the Salzburg Mozarteum in 1997. In 2002 Davies became Chief Conductor of the Bruckner Orchestra Linz as well as Opera Director at the Landestheater Linz. Since August 2009 he additionally assumed responsibility as Chief Conductor of the Basel Symphony Orchestra, Switzerland.

As a guest Dennis Russell Davies has conducted such renowned orchestras as those in Cleveland, Philadelphia, Chicago, San Francisco, Boston and the New York Philharmonic. In Europe he has worked with Gewandhausorchester Leipzig, Accademia di Santa Cecilia di Roma, Orchestra Filarmonica della Scala di Milano, the Munich and Berlin Philharmonic orchestras and the Concertgebouw Amsterdam.

After his début at the Bayreuth Festival 1978-1980 his operatic work has included conducting at Salzburg Festival, Lincoln Center Festival New York, Houston Grand Opera, Hamburg and the Bavarian State Operas – with directors like Harry Kupfer, Götz Friedrich, Achim Freyer, Peter Zadek, Robert Altmann, Juri Ljubimov, Daniela Kurz, Robert Wilson and Ken Russell – as well as Lyric Opera of Chicago, Metropolitan Opera New York and Opéra National de Paris.

Dennis Russell Davies was born in Toledo (Ohio) in 1944 and studied piano and conducting at the Juilliard School, New York. He is a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.
