About the Conductor

Wycliffe Gordon enjoys an extraordinary career as a performer, conductor, composer, arranger, and educator, receiving high praise from audiences and critics alike. Gordon received the Jazz Journalists Association 2001 and 2002 Award for Trombonist of the Year and the Jazz Journalists Association 2000 Critics' Choice Award for Best Trombone and has been nominated for the Jazzpar Prize.

In addition to a thriving solo career, he tours regularly leading the Wycliffe Gordon Quartet, headlining at legendary jazz venues throughout the world. Gordon is a former veteran member of the Wynton Marsalis Septet, the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the Gully Low Jazz Band, and he has been a featured guest artist on NPR's Billy Taylor's Jazz at the Kennedy Center.

Gordon is rapidly becoming one of America's most persuasive and committed music educators. He currently serves on the faculty of the Manhattan School of Music.
