About the Assistant Director

Jeremy Crozier is in his 10th year as a choral music educator and his 8th year as associate choral director at Trinity High School. He received his Bachelor of Music Education Degree from Simpson College in May of 2002. While at Simpson he was cast in several performing roles, worked as the Undergraduate Assistant for the Simpson Deparment of Choral Music, and studied conducting under Dr. Robert L. Larsen. After college, Mr. Crozier taught two years in Plano ISD before accepting his current position. Mr. Crozier received his Masters Degree from the University of Texas at Arlington in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies in May of 2008. Choirs under his direction have consistently earned sweepstakes awards at UIL and awarded "Best in Class" at various competitions throughout the United States. He currently holds the office of Vocal Division Chair-Elect for the TMEA Region 5 and is a member of the Trinity High School Campus Improvement Committee. Mr. Crozier holds professional affiliations with TMEA, ADCA, TCDA, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Phi Mu Alpha.

About the Ensemble

The Trinity Choral Program has a tradition of excellence that spans over four decades. There are 220 singers involved in six ensembles. These include Concert Women's Choir, Concert Mixed Choir, Harmony Show Choir, Varsity Women's Choir, Varsity Men's Choir, and A Cappella Choir.

A source of pride in the choir program is the involvement of its members in campus life. They include class leaders, IB students, students in all sports including football, cheerleaders, drill team members, and many have jobs outside of school in addition to all that they do at Trinity.

The A Cappella Choir at Trinity HS is an auditioned ensemble of 71 junior and senior students. All students must have been a part of the Trinity HS choir program for one year before being allowed to audition for A Cappella. The choir is proud of its rich and diverse social and ethnic backgrounds. The Trinity HS A Cappella Choir made its first appearance at TMEA in 2004 and is proud to be back this year.

About the Director

Michael Dean is in his 22nd year as a choral director in the Hurst-Euless-Bedford Independent School District. After teaching eight years at Hurst Junior High, he moved to Trinity High School in 1998. While maintaining superior ratings at UIL competition, the choirs at Trinity have also been awarded "Best in Class" at various music festivals across the country. Mr. Dean's choirs have performed with the King's Singers in the Morton Meyerson Symphony Center and Chanticleer in the Fort Worth Bass Hall. In 2004, Mr. Dean's Trinity High School A Cappella Choir sang at the TMEA Convention as one of the 5A invited choirs. In 2009, the A Cappella Choir was chosen the National Mixed Choir winner for the Mark of Excellence Choral Honors Project.

Mr. Dean received his Bachelor of Music Education with honors and Master of Music in Conducting from Baylor University. There he was named ACDA Choral Musician of the Year in 1987 and 1990 as well as Outstanding Graduate Student in 1990. Mr. Dean was selected Teacher of the Year for Hurst Junior High School in 1998 and Trinity High School in 2007. In 2010, Mr. Dean was the recipient of the Score A Goal in the Classroom's "Outstanding Choral Music Educator Hero" award.

Mr. Dean has served as adjudicator for numerous choral competitions and Solo and Ensemble contests throughout Texas. He frequently serves as guest clinician for All-Region performances and preparatory clinics for UIL Choral Contest. His professional affiliations include the Texas Music Educators Association (TMEA) where he currently serves as President of Region 5, Texas Choral Directors Association (TCDA), American Choral Directors Association (ACDA), Texas Music Adjudicators Association (TMAA), Association of Texas Professional Educators (ATPE), Phi Kappa Lambda and Kappa Kappa Psi.

He and his wife Lori have been married for 24 years and are the proud parents of two beautiful daughters, Kaylee, 19, and Kendall, 16.
