Theresa Killingsworth is a graduate from Southwest Texas State University with a Bachelor in Music Education, All-Level Certification. She is currently in her fifth year as choir director at Curtis Middle School. She also works with the Allen High School show choir as a director and choreographer. Prior to her move to Allen, she spent nine years at Belton High School as Associate Director and also worked in Georgetown as an Elementary Music Teacher. Theresa is married to Brennan Killingsworth, a band director at Ford Middle School in Allen. They have four children, Matthew (17), James (10), Emma (7) and Leann (10 months).

Mike Buntyn is in his eighth year as choral director at Ereckson Middle School. Mr. Buntyn grew up in Plano, Texas and holds a Bachelor of Music Education degree from Louisiana State University and a Master of Education in Administration from Lamar University. His teaching career began in Richardson ISD where he was choir director at Lake Highlands Junior High for 4 years. At Ereckson, the choirs have consistently been awarded Sweepstakes awards at UIL Competition and Superior ratings at the Birdville ISD Hurricane Harbor Choral Competition, as well as being named Outstanding in Class and Grand Champion numerous times. Mr. Buntyn, his wife Kimberly, their seven-year-old son Jacob and three-year-old son Henry live in Plano where Kimberly serves as an Educational Diagnostician for Plano ISD and Jacob is in the first grade.

Stephanie Petru, a graduate of Texas State University in San Marcos, is currently in her fifth year as choir director at Ford Middle School in Allen. Under her leadership, the choirs have consistently received Sweepstakes ratings each year at contest, and the choir program has tripled in size. Stephanie was also recognized as Rookie Teacher of the Year at Ford Middle School.

About the Directors

Brian McKinney is in his seventh year of teaching choirs at Allen High School. In addition to his classroom duties, he also serves the district as the vocal coordinator of secondary choral music. Since arriving in Allen, the choir department has grown to nine performing groups involving almost 350 students. The choirs have been consistently successful at UIL and other festivals. Brian earned his Bachelors of Music Education and his Masters of Music Performance from Texas Tech University. While there he studied with Dr. Donald Bailey and Dr. Ken Davis.

Before coming to Allen, Mr. McKinney taught at Wylie High School and spent ten years at Naaman Forest High School in Garland, Texas. He also serves as Music Director at Buckingham United Methodist Church in Garland, a position that he has held since 1994. He resides in Allen with his lovely wife, Cyndi. He has two children, Ariel and Marcus. He is a proud member of TMEA, TCDA, TMAA and MOWT.

Michael Bryson has been choral director at Lowery Freshman Center since 2003. In addition to his responsibilities at Lowery, he directs the Allen HS Eagle Select Women's Choir and assists with Chorale. Previous teaching positions include 2 years at Berkner HS/North JH in Richardson ISD, and 21 years as head Choral Director at Alice HS in Alice, Texas. During his tenure in Alice, the choir program grew from 45 students to over 200. In addition to consistent sweepstakes ratings, Mr. Bryson's choirs were guest performers with the Corpus Christi Symphony Orchestra, and were selected as Best in Class at numerous Texas and Colorado choral competitions.

Mr. Bryson holds a BME with honors from Southwest Texas State University, and a Master's Degree in Education with a supervisor's certificate from Texas A&I University. He is a member of TCDA, TMAA, and TMEA, where he has held numerous leadership positions at the Region and Area levels. Mr. Bryson, his wife Lori, and their son Daniel live in Wylie. Their older son, Christopher, is on active military duty with the US Air Force in New Jersey.
