About the Conductor

Colonel Arnald Gabriel, United States Air Force, Retired
Col. Arnald Gabriel retired from the United States Air Force in 1985 following a distinguished 36-year military career. He served as Commander/Conductor of the USAF Band, Symphony Orchestra, and Singing Sergeants from 1964 to 1985. In 1990, he was named the first Conductor Emeritus of the USAF Band.

Colonel Gabriel served on the faculty of George Mason University in Fairfax, Virginia, from 1985 to 1995, as Conductor of the GMU Symphony Orchestra and as Chairman, Department of Music. In recognition of his ten years of service to the university, he was named Professor Emeritus of Music.

Colonel Gabriel's professional honors include the first Citation of Excellence awarded by the National Band Association, the Midwest National Band and Orchestra Clinic's Gold Medal of Honor and its Distinguished Service to Music Award, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia's New Millennium Lifetime Achievement Award and its National Citation for "significant contributions to music in America," Kappa Kappa Psi's Distinguished Service to Music Award, Phi Beta Mu's Outstanding Contribution to Bands Award, and the St. Cecilia Award from the University of Notre Dame.

Colonel Gabriel was the youngest person inducted into the National Band Association Hall of Fame of Distinguished Band Conductors. He is also a Past-President of the prestigious American Bandmasters Association.

Colonel Gabriel continues to appear as clinician at major state, regional, and university music festivals and guest-conducts outstanding school, college, municipal, and military bands as well as orchestras around the world.
