About the Conductor

Brad Holmes is Director of Choir Programs at Millikin University in Decatur, Illinois. His extensive guest conducting schedule has included all-state, ACDA Honor Choirs, and church music festivals throughout the United States. International conducting engagements have taken him to England and the Far East, directing choirs from Korea, Japan, China, and the Philippines. In 2000, he was a Visiting Fellow in Residency at Cambridge University, England. Choirs under his direction have toured to 35 countries in Europe, South America, East Asia, the South Pacific, and Australia. His compositions are published by Santa Barbara Music Press, Morning Star Publishing, and First Step Publishing.

Upon earning a DMA degree from Arizona State University, Holmes became a member of the choral faculty at Luther College. In 1991 he accepted his current post at Millikin University. During his 21-year tenure at Millikin, the choral program has blossomed to five traditional choirs and a variety of smaller vocal ensembles involving more than 300 students and five nationally recognized conductors.

Under Holmes's leadership the Millikin University Choir has gained a national reputation, due in part to five invitations to perform at ACDA national and regional conferences. In addition to annual two-week tours across the U.S., the choir has recently toured in China, Taiwan, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, and throughout the United Kingdom. They recently recorded their sixth CD, How Sweet the Sound, on Millikin's First Step Records label.
