Dani Rauschuber

Mrs. Dani Rauschuber is a graduate of Winston Churchill High School in San Antonio. She was a member of the Texas Music Educators Association (TMEA) All-Region and All-Area Band and Orchestra throughout high school as a flute and piccolo player. Mrs. Rauschuber graduated with a Bachelor's in All-Level Music degree in December 1996 from The University of the Incarnate Word. While at Incarnate Word, she participated in Jazz, Choir, and Chamber Orchestra ensembles.

Mrs. Rauschuber has held band directing as well as elementary music positions in Fort Worth ISD, George West ISD, North East ISD, Schertz Cibolo Universal City ISD, and Fredericksburg ISD. She has taught Elementary Music, JH Band, and HS Band. Mrs. Rauschuber held the title of Director of Bands for eight of her fifteen years of teaching, both at the JH and HS level. Under her direction in George West, her band earned the distinguished honor of being selected as a State Finalist in the Outstanding Performance Series and a State Finalist in the TMEA Honor Band Contest.

The duties that Mrs. Rauschuber upholds at Fredericksburg ISD include directing the H.S. Non-Varsity Band, beginning flute class, and beginning saxophone class, as well as assisting with the H.S. Wind Ensemble, and the two performing M.S. Bands.

For fun, Mrs. Rauschuber is the principal flutist in the Kerrville Symphony of The Hills. She also enjoys teaching private lessons and playing hand bells with the Grace Notes of Holy Ghost Lutheran Church. When she can get the occasional free moment, she also loves to read history, fantasy, and science fiction novels.

About the Directors

John Rauschuber

Mr. Rauschuber is a graduate of Winston Churchill High School directed by Ferd Vollmar, where he was a member of the TMEA All-State Bands and Orchestra. He attended the University of North Texas where he played in the Symphonic Band directed by Dennis Fisher, Wind Symphony directed by Eugene Migliaro Corporon, and the Symphony Orchestra directed by Anshel Brusilow.

Mr. Rauschuber is currently in his sixth year as Director of Bands in Fredericksburg. Mr. Rauschuber oversees the entire band program, grades 6-12, while also directing the Marching Band, Wind Ensemble, and teaching beginning double reeds and horn at Fredericksburg Middle School. Under the direction of Mr. Rauschuber, the Fredericksburg Wind Ensemble was the 2011 TMEA 3A Honor Band 3rd runner-up and has been State Finalists in the ATSSB Outstanding Performance Series several times, including Concert Runner-Up and winner of the March Category in 2012. In 2012, the band was selected as a National Winner in the Mark of Excellence, National Wind Band Project.

Before coming to Fredericksburg, Mr. Rauschuber was the Assistant Director of Bands in George West ISD and Director of Bands in Marion ISD. While in Marion, his bands marched in the UIL Texas State Marching Contest as well as earning multiple Sweepstakes Awards. His Marion High School Bands were selected as State Finalists in the ATSSB Outstanding Performance Series several times as well as State Finalist in the TMEA Honor Band Contest.

Mr. Rauschuber is an active adjudicator and clinician throughout South Texas. He is a member of the Texas Music Educators Association (TMEA), Texas Bandmasters Association (TBA), Texas Music Adjudicators Association (TMAA), and the Association of Texas Small School Bands (ATSSB). Mr. Rauschuber is on the ATSSB State Board as the Region Coordinator of Region 11 and a member of the State Audition Review Committee (SARC).
