Howard Gerald (Jerry) Aultman was born and reared in Mississippi, where his father was a Baptist minister. He is in his eighteenth year at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth and currently serves as Professor of Music Theory where he occupies the Dick Baker Chair of Music Evangelism and Missions as well as serving as Chapel Organist. Since 1996 he has also served as organist at the First Baptist Church of Dallas.

Advanced musical studies include a Bachelor of Music degree from Mississippi College in 1976, a Master of Church Music degree from the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, with emphasis in piano performance in 1978, and a Doctor of Philosophy in Music Education from Louisiana State University in 1983.

Jerry is a Fellow in the American Guild of Organists and a member of Music Teachers National Association, Texas Music Teachers Association, and the Ft. Worth Music Teachers Association. Throughout his career Dr. Aultman has maintained a private teaching studio for organ and piano, has served often as adjudicator, performer, and teacher in conferences related to church music, and is a published arranger for organ and piano. Jerry and Carol Dickey Aultman have been married for 32 years, and Carol joins him in serving on the music faculty of Southwestern Seminary.

They are the proud parents of two adult sons, both alumni of NCHS Choirs. Brandon Aultman, after having served our country in the Army, is pursuing a degree in vocal performance at the University of North Texas. Eric, who studied musical theatre at Sam Houston State University, is pursuing his acting career in New York City.

About the Conductors

Robyn Wyatt Hollimon is in her thirteenth year as Choral Director at North Crowley High School and seventh year as Director of Music at Genesis United Methodist Church in Fort Worth. She was a 1986 Texas All-State Choir member and high school valedictorian before she attended Baylor University as a Presidential Scholar. Mrs. Hollimon studied under the late Hugh Sanders and graduated summa cum laude in Music Education from Baylor in 1990 where she was named Outstanding Senior Woman in the School of Music. She later earned Kodaly Level 1 certification from the University of North Texas under Dr. Jill Trinka.

Mrs. Hollimon taught 1st through 5th grade general music and led award-winning secondary choirs in the Grandview ISD for ten years before coming to NCHS in the fall of 2000. Since then, choirs under her direction have earned consistent UIL Sweepstakes ratings, Best in Class and Best in Festival awards and have performed in New England, New York and Europe. Six NCHS choirs have received invitations to perform at state, regional and national conventions and numerous NCHS choir members have excelled in TMEA, UIL, ACDA and SWACDA vocal competitions.

Mrs. Hollimon is a member of TMEA, TMAA, TCDA and ACDA. She served as Region 7 Vocal Division Secretary for nine years, Region 7 Vocal Chair from 2006-2008 and is currently Region 7 Vice-President. She served as Alto Section leader for the 2007 Mixed All-State Choir, has served as a Section Leader for several summer All-State camps and is an active clinician and adjudicator. She has been nominated numerous times to Who's Who Among American High School Teachers and in 2012 received the prestigious NCHS Bell Award given by the senior class at graduation. She resides in Burleson with her husband of twenty-one years, Scott.
